

Glad / Sad

(Text & Musik: Jürgen Seibold, 1998)

Glad? Sad?

I don't know how to feel now. What I had had –
I don't remember, don't forget. I've said that all was ending, all was gone and all depending on it lost and – done.

And I go further,
try to stand it all again.
And I go further,
try to stand it and face it and overcome it all.
And after all I don't know how to feel ...

Glad? Sad?

I don't know how to feel now. How to get that digested as the other things I had fled.
I tried them all to manage and at least had to confess that I can't do ...

But I go further ...
But I go further ...

Glad? Sad?

I don't know how to feel now. Could get
mad. Bad that it all can't start again and let get
a better chance to work it out,
a better start for us to try again.

So we go further ...

And we go further ...

... and after all we don't know how to feel,
... and after all we don't know how to feel,
... and after all I don't know how to feel ...
